

Welcome to the Vance minute. I'm Joe B. Wiles with the Public Affairs Office...

The 2015 Air Force Assistance Fund campaign at Vance ended with a 5K color race last Saturday that raised almost $2,700.

Two hundred and twenty runners followed a course around the base that periodically passed groups of volunteers who tossed colored corn starch on the runners.

By the time the race was over, the runners were covered in all the colors of the rainbow, and had pushed the 2015 Air Force Assistance Fund contribution total to almost $30,000, 125 percent of the campaign goal.

Runners in the Color race included children and adults, active duty military, government civilians, and their families, and 30 of Vance's neighbors.

The money raised during the 2015 campaign will be used by the Air Force Aid Society, the Air Force Enlisted Village, Blue Skies of Texas and the General and Mrs. Curtis LeMay Foundation.

And that's your Vance Minute... have a great Air Force day.
